SAILING YOU EXPERIENCE

Magic Sunset & Dinner With Dragon On Board

Experiencing a sunset on board from Port de Andratx with a paella dinner on the Isla Dragonera or "Dragon Island" in the Balearic language, is an unforgettable adventure. Departing from the charming Port de Andratx, you embark on a maritime journey toward Isla Dragonera, a natural park declared a protected area.

As the sun begins its descent on the horizon, the boat glides through tranquil waters, offering spectacular views of the coastline and mountainous profiles. Isla Dragonera, with its natural beauty and crystal-clear waters, sets an idyllic stage for enjoying the sunset with a glass of champagne.

On board, a delicious paella dinner is served – a quintessential Spanish dish prepared with fresh, local ingredients. Indulging in this culinary specialty while the sun paints the sky with warm hues adds a charming touch to the experience. Isla Dragonera, with its biodiversity and natural surroundings, provides a unique backdrop for your on-board dinner. From the deck of the boat, each moment becomes an unforgettable postcard, merging the beauty of the surroundings with delightful local cuisine.

PORT DE ANDRATX

Port d'Andratx, nestled on the southwestern coast of Mallorca, is a picturesque harbor town celebrated for its scenic beauty and maritime charm. Enclosed by rolling hills, the port offers a stunning backdrop of traditional Mediterranean architecture and luxury yachts. The waterfront promenade is adorned with a variety of cafes, restaurants, and boutiques, creating a vibrant atmosphere. Visitors can explore the charming streets, enjoy the panoramic views of the bay, and experience the relaxed ambiance of this coastal gem. Port d'Andratx is not only a delightful destination for strolling and dining but also serves as a gateway to maritime adventures and the exploration of nearby natural wonders.

SA DRAGONERA OR THE "DRAGON ISLAND"

Sa Dragonera is a small, uninhabited island located off the southwest coast of Mallorca, Spain. Designated as a natural park, it is characterized by rugged landscapes, hidden coves, and diverse flora and fauna. The island's name, meaning "Dragon Island," is inspired by its distinctive dragon-like shape. A popular destination for hikers and nature enthusiasts, Sa Dragonera offers walking trails that lead to breathtaking viewpoints, showcasing the beauty of the Mediterranean Sea. The island is also known for its historical significance, with remnants of ancient settlements and a watchtower that adds to its charm. Sa Dragonera is a protected haven, providing a serene escape for those seeking a glimpse of untouched natural beauty.
